The Homelessness Policy Research Institute brings together over 30 policymakers and local and national researchers to design and coordinate timely, relevant, and actionable research to end homelessness in Los Angeles County.
Objectives:

1. Foster collaboration and coordination among researchers focused on homelessness in the Los Angeles region.

2. Conduct rapid-response research and data analysis, and share with policymakers and community partners to inform on-the-ground work.

3. Share current and upcoming research with policymakers and community partners to inform on-the-ground work.

4. Provide RFP services for funded research.
Current HPRI Structure:

- United Way Home for Good
- USC Price Center for Social Innovation

Homeless Policy Research Institute (HPRI)

- HPRI Steering Committee
- HPRI Research Committee

- Race and Equity Working Group
- RFP Working Group
- Data Infrastructure Working Group

Home for Good Policy Table

Joint Research Agenda Working Group
For more information:

Gary Painter
Director, USC Price Center for Social Innovation;
Director, Homelessness Policy Research Institute

gpainter@usc.edu
socialinnovation.usc.edu/special-initiatives/homelessness-policy-research-institute